Dear Ahmet Artuç,

Leiden University wishes to express its gratitude to you for voluntarily offering ICT security related services. These services have contributed towards improvements in terms of safety, privacy and user satisfaction of our University systems.

Specifically, you have used honed skills and abilities in finding and reporting bugs or vulnerabilities. Consequently, Leiden University can improve the organization's cybersecurity level. As an organization that highly values cybersecurity and security research, we would like to thank you kindly for reporting these issues.

Leiden University have resolved the reported issues as soon as possible. Please let us know if you find any issues/vulnerabilities in the future by reporting them to abuse@leidenuniv.nl.

With kind regards,

Security Operations Centre - Leiden University
